Master Jack Chandler, son of Senator and Mrs. Chandler, celebrated his ninth birthday restready afternoon by a very jolly gatering of his schoolmates, who danced, played games and had a thoroughly good time from 3 until 6 o'clock. The last hour was taken up by the formal banquet in honor of the event. The little folks, headed by the young host, marched into the dining room, where a beautifully decorated table delighted them. The centerpiece was of red roses, and in front of Master Jack's place was a basket filled with him coses, presented by his aut, Mrs. Jacques. The birthday cake, on top of which nine candles burned, was another much admired ornament until the time came to cut it and to distribute it amongst the county of the count
